

2019 Responsible CEO of the Year Awards Nomination Form

This year marks the 12th year CR Magazine will award the prestigious Responsible CEO of the Year Awards. The award announcement will be made at 3BL Forum, October 29-30 at MGM National Harbor, just outside Washington, D.C. The theme is Brands Taking Stands – What’s Next?

You may review 2018 winners here.

The Responsible CEO awards is unique among business honors because they recognize how individual CEOs take an active role in aligning their organization's interests with their stakeholders to do well by doing good. The CEO Awards acknowledge this leadership continually evolves as corporate social responsibility now takes center stage.

In addition to the CEO of the Year Awards, CR Magazine's 9th annual Lifetime Achievement Award will recognize a CEO whose risk-taking, vision and pioneering spirit have led to significant achievement in the Corporate Responsibility field over the course of their career.

All award winners are nominated by fellow members of the Corporate Responsibility community and selected by an independent panel of judges composed of previous winners and other recognized leaders.

Submitting a Nomination: Please complete this nomination form and email it to ResponsibleCEO@3blmedia.com by March 31, 2019.

Note: CEOs who relate their personal professional development, commitment to corporate responsibility as demonstrated in their experiences and leadership often fare better in the awards review process than those who simply recap their organization's corporate responsibility and sustainability programs and practices.
